

The proposed rule requiring prior written consent of a recipient before sending faxed advertisements is just plain counterproductive for the way nonprofit organizations (such as the AAOS) conduct business. Please... abandon this. Please. For us to do what we need to do for the benefit of our association members, leave things as they are.